Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

These materials have been arranged and described according to national and local standards. For more information, please refer to the Beinecke Manuscript Unit Processing Manual.

Biographical / Historical

Ernest E. Young (1935-2005) of Berkeley, California, was an African American illustrator and architect. He studied at California College of Arts and Crafts, graduating in 1954. From 1950 to 1969, he headed his own design studio and later joined the professional firm Stone, Marraccini, and Patterson, Architects. He established Erni Young and Associates in Oakland in 1971. Young was also an associate professor at University of California, Berkley and UC Santa Barbara during the 1970s. Beginning in 1953, he dated Janet Buschman, a fellow student at California College of Arts and Crafts; the couple married in 1957 and separated circa 1990.
