CALL NUMBER: WA MSS S-3807

CREATOR: Cady, James Edgar, 1844-1916 , author

TITLE: Floyd E. Risvold Collection of James Edgar Cady Correspondence

DATES: 1862-1963

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 0.83 linear feet (2 boxes)

LANGUAGE: In English.

SUMMARY: Letters by James Edgar Cady to family and friends in Dodge City, Steele County, Minnesota, August 1862 to July 1865, during his military service with 8th Minnesota Infantry Regiment, Company G, as well as a tintype portrait of Cady in August 1862. Letters describe his service chiefly based at Fort Abercrombie, Dakota Territory, during the Dakota War in 1862 through an expedition led by Alfred Sully against the Dakota in 1864 as well as Cady's movement through Tennessee and North Carolina during the United States Civil War in 1864-1865. Most of the letters are addressed generally to his family and friends with a significant quantity explicitly directed to his parents and siblings. Floyd E. Risvold collected the letters and tintype as well as related material he used to exhibit the letters and accompanying illustrated envelopes at philatelic shows around 1960. The collection includes copies of an article by Risvold based on the letters: Floyd E. Risvold, "Indians and Rebels," Stamps (September 7, 1963).

Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

James Edgar Cady (1844-1916)

James Edgar Cady was born in Herkimer County, New York, in 1844, and was the eldest son of Edgar Cady (1817-1901) and Emily Augusta Hines Cady (1819-1897). In August 1862, he enlisted at Lake City, Minnesota, for a three-year term with the 8th Minnesota Infantry Regiment, Company G. Cady served as a private during the Dakota War in 1862 through an expedition led by Alfred Sully against the Dakota in 1864 as well as serving in the United States Civil War with movement through Tennessee and North Carolina in 1864 until he mustered out in July 1865.

After his military service, Cady was a farmer and apiarist at Merton and Medford in Steele County, Minnesota. In 1893, Cady married May Emily Smith Cady Schacht (1870-1955) and they had six children: Alfred Wilber Cady (1896-1896), Merle Wilton Cady (1898-1971), Cecil Rhodes Cary (1900-1970), Sir Irl Cady (1901-1966), Irma Violette Cady Barnes Kenppainen Finckh (1907-1992), Robert William Cady (1909-1956); they divorced around 1910.

Cady died at Rochester, Minnesota.

Floyd E. Risvold (1912-2009)

Floyd Eugene Risvold was a manuscript collector, dealer, philatelist, and historian from Minnesota with an interest in Western Americana. He was born in Milltown, Wisconsin, the eldest son of Oswald Eugene Risvold (1886-1957) and Marie Henrietta Lund Risvold (1884-1969) and raised in the Twin Cities, Minnesota.

Risvold served with the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, 1932-1946. He then joined O. E. Risvold & Sons, the infant products distribution company founded in 1930 by his father, which operated until his family sold the company in 1984 and he retired as the managing partner for the firm.

Publications by Risvold include his The Minnesota Territory in Postmarks, Letters and Covers (Chicago: Collectors' Club of Chicago, 1985) as well as editor of Louis J. Weichmann, A True History of the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln and the Conspiracy of 1865 (New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 1975), which received the Benjamin Barondess Award from the Civil War Round Table of New York in 1976.

In 1941, Risvold married Sophie Evelyn Lindstrom Risvold (1915-2007) and they had four children: Diane Marie Risvold Pearson (born approximately 1944), Kathleen Sandra Risvold Cathcart (born 1947), Douglas Floyd Risvold (1952-1953) and Howard Eugene Risvold (1952-1953).

Risvold died at Edina, Minnesota.

Scope and Contents

Letters by James Edgar Cady to family and friends in Dodge City, Steele County, Minnesota, August 1862 to July 1865, during his military service with 8th Minnesota Infantry Regiment, Company G, as well as a tintype portrait of Cady in August 1862. Letters describe his service chiefly based at Fort Abercrombie, Dakota Territory, during the Dakota War in 1862 through a punitive expedition led by Alfred Sully in 1864 as well as Cady's movement through Tennessee and North Carolina during the United States Civil War in 1864-1865. Most of the letters are addressed generally to his family and friends with a significant quantity explicitly directed to his parents and siblings. Floyd E. Risvold collected the letters and tintype as well as related material he used to exhibit the letters and accompanying illustrated envelopes at philatelic shows around 1960. The collection includes copies of an article by Risvold based on the letters: Floyd E. Risvold, "Indians and Rebels," Stamps (September 7, 1963).

Arrangement

Organized into three series: I. Letters by James Edgar Cady, 1862-1865. II. Visual Resources, 1862-1960. III. Publication and Exhibition Material, 1960-1963.

Collection Contents

Series I: Correspondence by James Edgar Cady, 1862–1865

Letters by James Edgar Cady to family and friends in Dodge City, Steele County, Minnesota, August 1862 to July 1865, although the location of the recipient is not always extant. In addition to generally addressed correspondence by Cady, this series includes letters explicitly addressed to his parents, Emily Augusta Hines Cady (1819-1897) and Edgar Cady (1817-1901), as well as to his siblings, Charles William Cady (1846-1828), George B. Cady (1848-1870), Ebenezer Cady (1850-1870), Harriet Maria Cady (1851-1936), and Hobart Cady (1856-1940).

Many letters are accompanied by typescripts. Many original letters or portions of letters were not extant on acquisition by the beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library and only exist as typescripts, which includes the bulk of letters written at Fort Abercrombie, Dakota Territory in 1863.
