Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit. These materials have been arranged and described according to national and local standards.

Biographical / Historical

George W. Wing (1833-1918) of Barnstable, Massachusetts, married Mary Elizabeth Gould (1841-1895) of Providence, Rhode Island, in Scott, Iowa, on 1866 June 14. The couple had four children: Daniel Gould Wing (1868-1936), twins Elizabeth "Bessie" Russell Wing Brace (1870-1926) and Alice E. Wing (1870-1920), and Thomas Ellwood Wing (1872-). The family were Quakers.

In the 1870s and early 1880s, George Wing worked as a bookkeeper in Davenport, Iowa. In 1884, the family moved to Lincoln, Nebraska, where they operated a small fruit and vegetable farm.

Daniel Gould Wing worked as a banker in West Newton, Massachusetts, and was eventually president of the First National Bank of Boston. He was married to Josephine Cabel (1867-1949), with whom he had one child, Katherine Cable Wing (1903-1989).

Elizabeth Brace attended the University of Nebraska in the late 1880s; in 1891, she began working at the school's library. Brace later graduated from the Library School of the Armour Institute of Chicago (the predecessor to the University of Illinois Library School) in 1897, and by 1901 was First Assistant at the University of Nebraska Library (a position she left in 1901 October). She was married to physicist Professor DeWitt B. Brace (1859-1906), with whom she had three children: Lloyd DeWitt Brace (1903-1986), Roger Wing Brace (1904-1966), and Alice B. Brace (1905-). The family lived in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Alice Wing attended Alma College in Michigan from 1899 to 1901, and graduated from Illinois State Library School in 1904. She worked for a time as Acting Librarian at the Public Library at Albion, Michigan. During World War I, she served with the YMCA in France.

Thomas Wing lived in Scarsdale, New York, and was a senior partner of the law firm Wing, Russell, & Watterson. He was married to Katharine Weston (1871-1903) and later Helen Stanton Bouve (1874-1943), with whom he had two children: John R. Wing (approximately 1912-) and Winthrop B. Wing (approximately 1913-).
