Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

These materials have been arranged and described according to national and local standards. For more information, please refer to the Beinecke Manuscript Unit Processing Manual.

James Bernard Benson and Ruth Wilhelmina Kohlstedt Benson

James Bernard Benson (1891-1979) and Ruth Wilhelmina Kohlstedt Benson (1893-1944) met in 1911 at Earlham College in Richmond, Indiana. The couple married in California in 1917 and subsequently enrolled at the Hartford Theological Seminary in Connecticut to study for missionary service. During World War I, James Benson served with the United States Army in France; following the war, he returned to Los Angeles, California, soon finding work teaching in Guadalajara, Mexico. In 1927, the Bensons and their three children (Malcolm Daniel Benson, Eloise Benson, and Phyllis Pearl Benson) moved back to Los Angeles, where both James Benson and Ruth Benson were teachers. In 1930, the Benson family began construction on a cottage in Big Bear City, a development promoted by the Peter Pan Woodland Club.

Eloise Jeanette Benson Nicholl

Eloise Jeanette Benson Nicholl (1921-2016) married William John Nicholl (1914-2005) in 1942. William Nicholl worked in San Diego, California, as a sales representative for Breakfast Club Coffee following his service with the United States Army during World War II.
