Processing Information

Former call number: Uncat MSS 1173

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization, at the time of acquisition. Further description was added in 2011 and 2022.

Robert B. Fisk

Robert Brown Fisk was born in Covington, Kentucky in 1852. He was an attorney and land developer in Gettysburg, Potter County, South Dakota from 1884 until his death after 1929.

Scope and Contents

The Robert B. Fisk Papers consist of family correspondence and business papers created and accumulated by Robert B. Fisk during the course of his career as an attorney and land developer in Potter County, South Dakota. Correspondence broadly documents nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century South Dakota life, including the rapidly growing settler population, business and real estate transactions, politics and the transition to statehood, the conditions of workers and prisoners, and the effect of economic recessions on the local population. Additionally, letters from family members document life in contemporary Kentucky. Other papers concern government assistance to indigent people in North Dakota in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.

Collection Contents

Series I: Business Papers, 1882-1929

2.5 linear feet (6 boxes)

Business Papers consist of correspondence (chiefly incoming, though also including retained copies of some outgoing letters) and financial records (chiefly bills and statements). Correspondence includes letters from colleagues, clients, and prospective settlers, relating to legal matters and cases, to economic conditions in the Dakota Territory and South Dakota, and to real estate prospects and transactions. Of particular interest is correspondence from mortgage and wholesale companies (for whom Fisk worked as a collections agent) and from individuals seeking relief from debt, documenting the economic conditions in the Dakota Territory and South Dakota in the context of rapid settlement, widespread mortgages, and the Panics of 1893 and 1907.

Correspondence is arranged chronologically.

b. 1, f. 1	Receipts	1883, undated
b. 1, f. 2-13	Business correspondence	1882-1894
b. 2, f. 14-19	Business correspondence	1895-1900
b. 3, f. 20-25	Business correspondence	1901-1906
b. 4, f. 26-30	Business correspondence	1908-1911 August
b. 5, f. 31-38	Business correspondence	1911 September-1916
b. 6, f. 39-50	Business correspondence	1917-1926
b. 6, f. 51	Unidentified notes and sketches	1929, undated

Series II: Family Papers, 1885-19290.84 linear feet (2 boxes)*

Family correspondence addresses not only family matters such as health and welfare, personal financial situations, and births and deaths of family members, but also legal and economic topics related to the conditions in and prospects of the Dakota Territory and South Dakota. Estate papers document the holdings and distribution of the property of Fisk's parents, John F. and Elizabeth S. Fisk.

Organized into two subseries: Correspondence and Estate Papers.
