Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

Ilya Simakov

Ilya Simakov is a United States-based filmmaker of Russian origin, who received his Master of Fine Arts in Film and Media Arts from Temple University (2012). His professional roles have included cinematographer, gaffer, camera assistant, boom operator, producer, and editor.

During 2008, Simakov shot many hours of videotape during Living Theatre's touring production of "The Brig".

Scope and Contents

This collection contains digital videotapes documenting the 2008 touring production of "The Brig" by Living Theatre. Also included in the collection is a compact disc, printed flyers, brochures, and pamphlets related to the tour.

Originally presented in 1963 and performed by Living Theatre, the 2007 revival of "The Brig" featured a new version written by Kenneth Brown. It depicts a typical day in a U. S. Marine Corps military prison. In 2008, the troupe's touring production traveled extensively throughout Germany and Italy and was documented by filmmaker Ilya Simakov.

Arrangement

The materials in this collection are organized into two series: I. Audiovisual and born-digital material, 2008. II: Flyers, programs, and other tour-related materials, 2007-2008.
