Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

Biographical / Historical

Richard Wright was born in Liverpool, England, in 1794, the son of John Wright, a Unitarian lay preacher. Seeking to escape religious persecution, the Wright family emigrated from Liverpool to Georgetown, Washington in 1817. The family corresponded with Peter Robinson and others in Liverpool; their letters contain impressions of Georgetown, Washington, D. C., and Alexandria, Virginia, as well as extensive writing about their Abolitionist views. Richard Wright died in 1870.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains correspondence between Richard Wright and Hannah Wright and Peter Robinson, with related correspondence between members of the Robinson family and others. It also includes writings by Richard Wright, as well as correspondence and legal documents relating to Joseph Johnson Robinson.
