CALL NUMBER: YCAL MSS 266

CREATOR: Scheuer, Steven H., 1926-2014

TITLE: Steven H. Scheuer Collection of Television Program Scripts

DATES: circa 1953-1963

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 188.49 linear feet (453 boxes)

LANGUAGE: English

SUMMARY: The Steven H. Scheuer Collection of Television Program Scripts contains approximately five thousand American television scripts dating from about 1953 to 1963. The scripts offer insight into programming during the period in which television became a fixture in the average home and the primary medium for news and entertainment. The collection contains a wide range of program genres, including variety shows, drama serials, historical drama, crime drama and reenactments, plays, situation comedies, westerns, documentaries, interviews, music, and religious programs. All three major broadcast networks in the United States during this time period--ABC, CBS, and NBC--are represented. The collection also contains a small number of press releases and some material documenting the activities of TV Key, including draft reports and synopses.

Steven H. Scheuer (1926-)

Steven H. Scheuer is a television and film critic. His syndicated preview column "TV Key" ran in newspapers throughout the United States beginning in 1953, and he edited the related annual publication TV Key Movie Guide, later Movies on TV.

---

Scope and Contents

The Steven H. Scheuer Collection of Television Program Scripts contains approximately five thousand American television scripts dating from about 1953 to 1963. The scripts offer insight into programming during the period in which television became a fixture in the average home and the primary medium for news and entertainment. The collection contains a wide range of program genres, including variety shows, drama serials, historical drama, crime drama and reenactments, plays, situation comedies, westerns, documentaries, interviews, music, and religious programs. All three major broadcast networks in the United States during this time period--ABC, CBS, and NBC--are represented. The collection also contains a small number of press releases and some material documenting the activities of TV Key, including draft reports and synopses.

An index of authors, subjects, and interview subjects can be found in Appendices I-III, at the end of the finding aid.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged alphabetically by program title. Following the main alphabetic sequence, under the heading "Specials," are scripts and fragments not identifiable as part of a program series. One box of TV Key press releases is filed at the end of the collection. Folders numbers begin again with number 1 in each box.
