Biographical / Historical

Eugene A. Turner was born in Wake Forest, North Carolina. He had completed a Bachelor's Degree, Master's Degree, and Law Degree at Wake Forest College by 1906. After a year of teaching at a preparatory school, Turner became Y.M.C.A. Secretary at the Georgia School of Technology. In 1913 Turner went to China under the Y.M.C.A. and worked with students in the city of Hangzhou (Hangchow). According to a biographical sketch, Turner "built up a Y.M.C.A. which, in a short time, enlisted the support of government officials and the literati. He also helped to train an efficient staff of Chinese to whom he relinquished the executive work, remaining as an advisor. He organized, coached and conducted the first inter-scholastic football league ever attempted in Hangzhou (Hangchow). Other activities were pioneered: debates, oratorical contests, essay contests, etc. He organized Bible study groups among the students." After a furlough, Turner returned to China in 1928 and was sent to Wuchang and served as Y.M.C.A. General Secretary. He later served in Nanchang, home of the New Life Movement and had personal contact with General and Madame Chiang Kai-shek. Turner was a leader in the Christian Rehabilitation Center in Jiangxi (Kiangsi) Province, which was involved in the rehabilitation of districts previously held by Communist forces. Turner was married to Mary Effie Lee Turner and was the father of Frank Turner and Eugene Alfred Turner, Jr., who was also involved in Y.M.C.A. work.

Scope and Contents

The Eugene A. Turner Papers complement other collections of China Y.M.C.A. workers held at the Divinity School Library, including the papers of Lyman Hoover, Dwight W. Edwards, Lennig Sweet, and Austin Long, as well as China Y.M.C.A. records in the archives of the World Student Christian Federation.

The majority of the family correspondence is from the war years when Eugene Turner was separated from his wife and children. General correspondence includes letters to and from Madame Chiang Kai-shek, as well as Y.M.C.A. colleagues. The reports from China in Series II are excellent substantive reports of Turner's work with the Y.M.C.A. dating from 1913 to 1947. He also comments on political events and describes Chinese customs. The documentation of these reports is supplemented by writings in Series III.
