Preferred Citation

Leland Starnes, Director of the Yale Dramatic Association, Records (RU 958). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Biographical / Historical

Leland Starnes received his B.A. (1950) and M.A.T. (1951) from Harvard University and his Doctor of Fine Arts from Yale University in 1965. In addition to being the director of the Yale Dramatic Association from 1960 to 1968, he was an instructor of speech (1960-1966) and assistant professor (1966-1967) in the Yale School of Drama. Starnes left Yale in 1968 to become Director of Drama at the University of Pittsburgh.

Biographical / Historical

The Yale Dramatic Association was established in 1900.

Scope and Contents

The records are arranged in two accessions. The bulk of the records consist of production files maintained by Leland Starnes as director of the Yale Dramatic Association. The files offer a glimpse into the director's creative process through annotated prompt scripts, correspondence, and research notes, as well as to the productions themselves, through cast lists, programs, photographs, sound recordings and newsclippings.

Additional documentation on Starnes' productions is included in the Yale Dramatic Association Records (RU 300) in Manuscripts and Archives.

General note

Forms part of Yale Record Group 40 (YRG 40), Records of Yale clubs, societies and organizations.

Arrangement

The records are arranged by accession and chronologically by year of production therein.

Collection Contents

Accession 2004-A-181: Records, 1960-1968

The records are arranged under two headings: General and Production files, and by size and format. General records consist of programs for Yale Dramatic Association festivals and subscription flyers. The Production files, arranged chronologically, contain records documenting Leland Starnes' productions from 1960-1964. Items in the Posters, Folio, and Audiovisual sections are arranged chronologically, and cross references from the Production files have been provided. An itemized list of the material for each production (play) is available in the first file for the production.
