

Guide to the Lyman Family Papers

MS 337

compiled by Manuscripts and Archives Staff

April 1984

Yale University Library
P.O. Box 208240
New Haven, CT 06520-8240
(203) 432-1735
(203) 432-7441
beinecke.library@yale.edu
<http://www.library.yale.edu/mssa/>

---

Table of Contents

Collection Overview .....	3
Requesting Instructions .....	3
Administrative Information .....	4
Immediate Source of Acquisition .....	4
Conditions Governing Access .....	4
Conditions Governing Use .....	4
Preferred Citation .....	4
Biographical / Historical .....	4
Scope and Contents .....	5
Collection Contents .....	7
Inventory, 1803-1886 .....	7
Selected Search Terms .....	12

---

Collection Overview

REPOSITORY: Manuscripts and Archives
Yale University Library
P.O. Box 208240
New Haven, CT 06520-8240
(203) 432-1735
(203) 432-7441
beinecke.library@yale.edu
<http://www.library.yale.edu/mssa/>

CALL NUMBER: MS 337

CREATOR: Lyman family

TITLE: Lyman Family papers

DATES: 1803-1886

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 5 linear feet (12 boxes, 1 folio)

LANGUAGE: English

SUMMARY: The principal figure in these papers is Joseph Bardwell Lyman, a lawyer and journalist. The papers include his correspondence, diaries, business papers, account books, court books, and articles written between 1858-1865. His student career is documented with papers written while at Yale College (1845-1850) and at the University of Louisiana Law School. As a distant relative of the Dickinson family of Amherst, Massachusetts, he corresponded with Emily Dickinson, her brother, Austin, and her sister, Lavinia. One letter from Austin Dickinson is in the papers. Emily Dickinson and Lavinia are represented by "snatches" from their letters copied out by Lyman. Also in the papers is a two-year series of engagement letters written to Laura E. Baker between 1856 and 1858 when they were married. Other letters describe army life during the Civil War, the Battle of Shiloh, 1862, and Lyman's interest in journalism and agriculture. Laura Baker Lyman is represented in the papers by a journal and miscellaneous papers.

ONLINE FINDING AID: To cite or bookmark this finding aid, please use the following link: <https://hdl.handle.net/10079/fa/mssa.ms.0337>

---

Requesting Instructions

To request items from this collection for use in the Manuscripts and Archives reading room, please use the request links in the HTML version of this finding aid, available at <https://hdl.handle.net/10079/fa/mssa.ms.0337>.

To order reproductions from this collection, please go to http://www.library.yale.edu/mssa/ifr\_copy\_order.html. The information you will need to submit an order includes: the collection call number, collection title, series or accession number, box number, and folder number or name.

Key to the container abbreviations used in the PDF finding aid:

b.      box
f.      folder

---

Administrative Information

---

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Gift of Joseph B. Lyman III, 1967.

---

Conditions Governing Access

The materials are open for research.

---

Conditions Governing Use

Unpublished materials authored or otherwise produced by the creator(s) of this collection are in the public domain. There are no restrictions on use. Copyright status for other collection materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

---

Preferred Citation

Lyman Family Papers (MS 337). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

---

Biographical / Historical

*JOSEPH BARDWELL LYMAN (Northampton, Mass.), son of Timothy Lyman and Experience (Bardwell), was born in Chester, Hampden Co., Mass., Oct. 6, 1829. For three years after graduation he was engaged in teaching, first in Cromwell, Conn., and afterward in Mississippi. In June, 1853, he went to Nashville, Tenn., where he remained till Jan. 1855, studying law. He then went to Louisiana, studied civil law in the New Orleans Law School, graduated with the valedictory in 1856, was admitted to the bar in April of that year, and continued to reside in New Orleans practicing law till the breaking out of the war. He was in the Confederate army eighteen months; being chiefly engaged in commissary and hospital service. In Sept. 1863, he came north and joined his family in Boston, they having gone thither by sea a year previous. For a year he resided at Easthampton, Mass., trying to earn an honest living by the work of his hands, painting houses, and working in the corn and tobacco fields, his southern sympathies rendering it impossible, however, for him to secure regular employment. In Feb. 1864, he removed to New York City and engaged in journalism with immediate and gratifying success. From 1867 to 1869 he was agricultural editor of the "N. Y. World," and for several months managing editor of "Hearth and Home," and about Jan. 1869, was called to edit the agricultural department of the "N. Y. Tribune," where he continued till his death from small pox, Jan. 28, 1872. During these years he wrote "Women of the War," "Resources of the Pacific States," and, assisted by his wife, "The Philosophy of Housekeeping."

His classmates will surely be glad to see in full, and, will read with a sad interest Lyman's cheerful letter, written from the "Tribune" office, July 16, 1870, to those of us who met four days later for our twentieth anniversary:

" My dear Classmates:- I will be with you in hope and in spirit on the 20th, and I had planned for months to stand with you all and touch your hands after two decades. But a party of journalists have requested me to go with them across the continent, and while you are sitting there on the grass I will be whirling up the valley of the North Platte, or loitering on the margin of Salt Lake. The record thus written for you is far dimmer than the vital report of man to man, as eyes give their swift verdicts, and we note in gait and port, in wrinkle or in beard the stamp of twenty years.

"Three summers after we were graduated I read Black-stone, and Kent, and Greenleaf, and five years after those diplomas I received a certificate from the Supreme Court of Louisiana of my fitness to plead before it. From '56 to '61 I was in practice in the courts of that State and liked it. I proposed a summer home in the picturesque mountains near Chattanooga, and tasks and enterprises there-

"Where the rose, in crimson glory

Blossoms all the winter time."

But,

"The best laid plans of mice and men

Gang aft a'glee."

"The war broke over me as a sea; it quenched hopes, thwarted plans, destroyed securities, and made engagements nugatory. My land became a useless spread of earth; my fees went where the woodbine twineth. In Feb. 1865, I set foot in Broadway. That day on the bulletin board of this paper stood the words, "Conference at Fortress Monroe, without results." In a day or two there appeared a leader in the "Times" on the situation. It was from my pen. Thus introduced, I entered on newspaper work, and have been in it ever since. I like it so well that the salary of Chief Justice Chase would not draw me back to the hazards and harassments of the courts. In 1858 I married. No step of life has been so important, and none with me has been so fortunate. It opened a gateway into a merry land where the bells are ringing and the birds are singing all the day long. Of little Lymans there are five; three are boys. My home is on a farm near Trenton, my work here, where the feet of those I write for echo round me evermore.

"My twenty years of knock and scuffle have pounded three or four ideas into me. Perhaps you have been hammered into the same convictions; it so, you will agree with me; 1st. That in American society, all a brave spirit asks of fortune, is to let ability have opportunity. 2d. That in winning success no counsel is to be held with flesh and blood: He wins who can do two days' work in one, and who is trying to see how much, not how little work he can do. 3d. Yet I have learned to condemn the gilded, phantoms for which I see men racing. I am never sick, I am wholly content with the opportunity before me, and my home after labors is as blessed as I hope Heaven may be after death."

Many notices of his death appeared in the public prints, of which we quote the following: "We mourn in him a most amiable, able and faithful associate, and all the friends of enlightened and progressive agriculture will find his loss an irreparable one. He was a devoted Christian, always foremost in all good works in his neighborhood, and his unobtrusive charity was limited only by his means. It will be well for us all, if when the summons of death comes, it finds us with a record made up of so little harm and so much good done, as was that of this modest and faithful workingman."

He was married at Nashville, Tenn., July 14, 1858, to Miss Laura E. Baker, daughter of Rev. Charles Baker, of Somerville, Mass., and left six children surviving him: (1) Alexander S., born April 8, 1860; (2) Charles W., born Nov. 5, 1861; (3) Laura E., born Dec. 24, 1866; (4) Carrie F., born Aug. 28, 1868; (5) Joseph B. Jr., born Jan. 4, 1870; (6) Clarence A., born April 12, 1871. Mrs. Lyman is living with her children at Richmond Hill, L. I.

Biographical Record of the Class of 1850 of Yale College, pp. 47-50.

For a register outlining the genealogical relations of the Lyman family, please consult the Family Register.

---

Scope and Contents

The Lyman Family Papers consist of correspondence, diaries, writings, account books, law practice records, memorabilia, and miscellaneous papers of Joseph B. Lyman plus correspondence and miscellaneous papers of other members of the Timothy and Experience (Bardwell) Lyman family.

The correspondence, consisting mainly of exchanges between members of the family, contains much religious and philosophical material and many comments about schooling and careers in various parts of the United States. The vast majority of letters are by Joseph B. Lyman, spanning from the mid-1840s until his death in 1872 and covering these aspects, among others, of his career and personal life: his schooling at Williston Seminary and Yale College; his friendship with Emily Dickinson, her brother Austin, and her sister Lavinia;<sup>1</sup> his teaching in Mississippi, Tennessee, and Indiana; his law training and practice in New Orleans; his service in the Civil War (including an account of the Battle of Shiloh); and his postwar career in agricultural journalism. Most of the remaining letters were written between the mid-1830s and the mid-1850s by other members of the family—principally Joseph’s brothers, Washington, Timothy, and Edward; his sister, Louisa (Lyman) Reed, and her children; and Laura Baker, who became his wife. Washington Lyman’s letters are from Kentucky, Tennessee, and other places in the South; Edward’s, from Sheboygan Falls, Wisconsin; Timothy’s, from Andover Theological Seminary, Princeton, and Fort Madison, Iowa; the Reeds’, from Massachusetts and Iowa. Laura Baker’s letters—to her parents in Ipswich, Mass., and later to Joseph B. Lyman—describe her experiences as a teacher in Natchez and Nashville in the 1850s. The non-family correspondence consists mainly of letters to Joseph B. Lyman from friends and school and business associates.

<sup>1</sup>Excerpts were edited by Richard S. Sewall and published in the Massachusetts Review in 1965.

The Lyman Family papers were placed on deposit by Joseph Lyman, Jr., in 1961, and donated to the Library in 1967. Three unidentified daguerrotypes have been transferred to the Historical Picture Collection.

Collection Contents

Inventory, 1803-1886

Correspondence
b. 1, f. 1-21	1829-1855	1829-1855
b. 2	1856-1858 May	1856-1858 May
b. 3	1858 June-1865 February	1858 June-1865 February
b. 3, f. 47	1862 Apr-Jun
b. 3, f. 48	1862 Jul-Dec
b. 4	1865 March-1869	1865 March-1869
b. 5	1870-1872, 1880, 1886, undated	1870-1872, 1880, 1886, undated
Personal papers of Joseph B. Lyman (1829-1872; Y. 1850)
Bound volumes
b. 6	Diaries	1854-1871
b. 6	Pocket notebooks	1843-1846, 1854-1870
b. 6	Pocket notebooks	undated
Account books
b. 7	1855-1860	1855-1860
b. 7	1858-1863	1858-1863
b. 7	1860 English	1860
b. 7	1869 English	1869
b. 7	1870 English	1870
Court books
b. 7	ca. 1853	Circa 1853
b. 7	1856-1862	1856-1862
b. 7	1858	1858
Journals

Personal papers of Joseph B. Lyman (1829-1872; Y. 1850) &gt; Bound volumes &gt; Journals (continued)

b. 7	1857 English	1857
b. 7	1862 English	1862
b. 7, f. 106	Bound volumes JBL: journals (addressed to Laura)	1862
Writings
b. 8	"Historia Erotica" and measurement charts English	1858
b. 8	"Locust Hill Field Book" English	1858
b. 8	Copy book of poems and essays	1859-1860
b. 8	"Botes on Readings in Kent, Part V" English	1861
b. 8	"The African Question" English	1863
b. 8	"Observations on Happiness, Health, Temperament, Knowldege, and Sundry other Topics" English	1863
b. 8	"The Capture of New Orleans and Butler's Administration..." English	[1863?]
b. 8	"Notebook and Journal for Records in Self Culture" English	1863
b. 8	"Outlines of a Plan for the Government of the Emancipated Africans of the U.S." English	1863
b. 8	"The Southern Situation and Prospects" English	[1863?]
b. 8	"Cotton Planting and Management of Negroes" English	1864
b. 8	"The Garden Calender" English	1864
b. 8	"Scripture Readings" English	1864
b. 8	"Faces of Washington and Caezar..." English	1865
b. 8	Leaders for the New York Daily Times	1865
b. 8	Notes on Rabbi Beane and Andy Johnson	1865
b. 8	"The Revolution in Rebel Politics" English	[1865]

Personal papers of Joseph B. Lyman (1829-1872; Y. 1850) &gt; Writings (continued)

b. 8	"War Literature" English	1865
b. 8	"What becomes of Old Iron, Outline of Thoughts" English	1865
b. 8	"Sketches of Rebel Leaders, No. 1, Jeff Davis" English	[1866-1867?]
b. 8	"The Boys' Homer..." English	1867
b. 8	"A Grand Industrial School in Dream-Land" English	1867
b. 8	"Major General Philip Kearny" English	[1867?]
b. 8	"A Treatise on Manures" English	[1867?]
b. 8	"An Essay on the Origin, Nature and Value of the Green Sand Marl" in Marl English
b. 8	"The Campaigns of the Great American War" English	undated
b. 8	"Cheese as Food" English	undated
b. 8	"Handbook of American Oratory" English	undated
b. 8	"George S. Hillard" English	undated
b. 8	[Chapters I, II, of History of the Civil War?] English	undated
b. 8	"To Kalon" English	undated
b. 8	"The Ocean Treasure" English	undated
b. 8	"Wendell Phillips" English	undated
b. 8	"Young Housekeepers Catechism..." English	undated
b. 8	Notes on agricultural topics	undated
b. 9	Notes, fragments, and miscellaneous	1860-1869, undated

School papers

Personal papers of Joseph B. Lyman (1829-1872; Y. 1850) &gt; School papers (continued)

b. 9	Yale College student writings	1845-1851
b. 9	University of Louisiana Law School papers	1853-1856
b. 9	Law practice papers	1856-1863, undated
b. 10	Law practice papers	1856-1863, undated
b. 10	Notes on Dr. Palmer's sermons (of New Orleans)	1860-1861
	Miscellaneous papers
b. 10	Descriptions, plans and sketches for houses	1861, undated
b. 10	"Minutes of meeting held on eve of Company D's departure for war in Tennessee..." English	1862
b. 10	Phrenologist's report on JBL, including portion marked "Sexually"	1865
b. 11	Legal and financial papers	1803-1838, 1844-1850, 1858-1863, 1868-1872, undated
	Miscellaneous papers
b. 11	Charles W. Lyman: composition book	1872-1873
	Laura (Baker) Lyman
b. 11	Journal and scrapbook	1851-1868
b. 11	Papers	1857, 1864, undated
b. 11	Alphabet book	undated
	Timothy Lyman (1782-1837)
b. 11	Copy of will	1806
b. 11	Notes on property	undated
b. 11	Gravestone markings	undated
b. 11	Wm. McMaster: poems in response to the deaths of Timothy Lyman and Miss Wealthy Lyman	1838, 1841
b. 11	Genealogical notes	undated
b. 11	Inscription on monument honoring dead at Alamo	undated
b. 11	Poem on a dead cat	undated
b. 11	Partial description of gold discovery in 1848	undated

Miscellaneous papers (continued)

b. 11	Maps (manuscript)	undated
b. 11	Newspaper clippings
b. 11	Remedies for assorted ailments	1870
b. 11	Wrappers and envelopes	undated
b. 12	Ancestral Tablets (with no entries) English	1871
b. 12	Mitchell's School Atlas English	undated
b. 12	Memorabilia	1866-1871, undated
Memorabilia (oversize)
b. 13	Broken spoon	1808
b. 13	JBL: University of Louisiana Law School diploma	1856
b. 13	Laura (Baker) Lyman: slippers	1858
b. 13	JBL: neckties	[1871]
b. 13	JBL: locks of hair	[1872]
b. 13	Chart of Biblical data	undated
b. 13	Confederate rag cloth	undated
b. 13	Cotton from one of "10,000 bales burnt by Rebels at the capture of New Orleans"	undated
b. 13	Map, hand painted, of unidentified area	undated
b. 13	"Tabular View of the Law of Prescription . . ." English	undated
b. 13	Tweezers	undated
b. 13	Shoes made by slave, with explanatory note	1863

Selected Search Terms

The following terms have been used to index the description of this collection in the Library's online catalog. They are grouped by name of person or organization, by subject or location, and by occupation and listed alphabetically therein.

Subjects

Agriculture
Clergy
Courtship
Education
Families
Husband and wife
Journalism
Journalists
Law
Lawyers
Literature -- History and criticism
Phrenology
Shiloh, Battle of, Tenn., 1862

Geographic Names

Southern States
United States -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865

Genres / Formats

Account books
Diaries

Names

Dickinson, Emily, 1830-1886
Dickinson, Lavinia Norcross, 1833-1899
Dickinson, William Austin, 1829-1895
Lyman, Joseph B. (Joseph Bardwell), 1829-1872
Lyman, Laura E. (Laura Elizabeth), 1831-1912

Families

Lyman family

Corporate Body

Yale University -- Students