Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Gift of John M. Whitcomb, 1975-1995.

Conditions Governing Access

The materials are open for research.

Conditions Governing Use

Copyright status for collection materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

Preferred Citation

Ethel Fogg and William Brooks Clift Memorial Collection (MS 817). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Scope and Contents

The Clift Collection is divided into three series. Series I consists of letters and other papers of European and American cultural and political figures from the eighteenth through the twentieth centuries. These papers are arranged alphabetically by author. Series II contains the correspondence of John Merrill Whitcomb (1907-, Y. 1930) with writers, historians, and political figures on subjects such as the Russian Revolution, communism, the Sacco-Venzetti case, Woodrow Wilson, and American foreign policy. These papers are arranged alphabetically by correspondent. Series III consists of material relating to Ethel Fogg Clift.

Yale University received this collection through the generosity of John M. Whitcomb, who donated the papers in honor of Ethel Blair Fogg Clift and William Brooks Clift in a series of gifts beginning in 1975.

Arrangement

Arrangement by accession.
