Biographical / Historical

Vance Criswell McCormick was born in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on June 19, 1872. He attended Andover and received his Ph. B. from Yale in 1893. After graduation McCormick was associated in various business ventures with his father.

In 1902, he began his serious and lifelong connection with the journalistic and publishing worlds as well as his involvement in state and national Democratic party politics. McCormick was the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania in 1914; he was appointed chairman of the Democratic National Committee in 1916; and served as chairman of the War Trade Board during the crucial years 1916-1919. In the fall of 1917 President Wilson also sent McCormick to London as a member of Colonel House's special American War Mission to the Inter-Allied Conference; and a year later he appointed him Adviser on Economic Questions to the American Commission to Negotiate Peace.

While in Paris, McCormick served as chairman of the Superior Allied Blockade Council, as a member of the Supreme Economic Council, and as a member of the Commission on Reparations. After the signing of the treaty of peace - and for the better part of the succeeding twenty-five years - McCormick resumed his active participation in Democratic politics, Pennsylvania civic and educational affairs, and Yale University alumni affairs. He died in June 1946.

Scope and Contents

The McCormick papers comprise material dealing primarily with McCormick's official career during the latter stages of World War I and at the Paris Peace Conference - most of which material is not duplicated in the rich collection of political papers given earlier to the Yale University Library by Colonel E. M. House, Gordon Auchincloss, and Charles Seymour. The collection is divided into five series which are arranged as follows:

I. General Correspondence (3 boxes).

II. The War (1 box). Primarily material dealing with the Inter-Allied Conference of November - December 1917.

III. The Peace Conference (8 boxes). The bulk of the material comprises (a) memoranda and reports on reparations problems and general economic questions; (b) copies of the reports of the Central Bureau of Planning and Statistics; and (c) copies of miscellaneous official cables concerning War Trade Board activities during the period November 1918-July 1919.

IV. Reports of the Engineering Department (4 boxes). A series of 19 volumes prepared for the American Commission to Negotiate Peace entitled "War Damages in Allied Countries."

V. Personal and Memorabilia (2 boxes). This includes a copy of McCormick's personal Diary (printed privately) which describes his participation at the London Inter-Allied Conference and at the Paris Peace Conference.

Arrangement

Arranged in five series: I. General Correspondence. II. The War. III. The Peace Conference. IV. Reports of the Engineering Department. V. Personal and Memorabilia.
