Scope and Contents

This collection contains writings and other papers by and about David French Pierce (1840-1905) of Southbury, Connecticut, and his children. Papers pertaining to David F. Pierce include manuscript descriptions of visions seen by him and poems written by him. Papers pertaining to his daughter Anna Harriet Pierce (Yale B.F.A. 1916) include a typescript copy of "Reminiscences of an Art Student," newspaper clippings describing her paintings, programs of exhibitions of her works, and photographs and other reproductions of her paintings. Anna's sister Mary Elizabeth Pierce (d. 1934; Yale M.A. 1927) is represented by the manuscript "Memories of Life on a New England Farm"; their brother, Frederick E. Pierce, is represented by an obituary notice and a eulogy. The remaining items in the collection are two letters, photographs, and an essay all relating to the Pierce homestead in Southbury, and ten photographs of family members.

These papers were donated to Yale University in 1971 by Shelton B. Hicock.
