Preferred Citation

Catherine Dickey Autograph Collection (MS 1760). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Scope and Contents

The collection, compiled by Catherine Colt Dickey (Mrs. Charles D. Dickey), includes autographs of United States presidents, signers of the Declaration of Independence, government officials, military figures, industrialists, educators, explorers, authors, and other well known persons in public life. Autographs appear on various mediums: letters; postcards; photographs; handwritten and printed documents; and small blank cards specifically designed to solely capture signatures.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged in two parts: Unbound material and bound material. The unbound material is arranged alphabetically by writer's last name. Bound material is listed alphabetically by the cover title of each volume, with contents described in the order in which they were bound.

Collection Contents

Autographs, unbound

The majority of the signed correspondence to Catherine Dickey consists of correspondents sending social pleasantries, such as thank you messages and arrangements to meet, whereas the correspondence to persons other than Dickey is often of a more substantive nature. Ephemera kept by Dickey is listed at the end of the inventory of unbound material.

Autographs are listed alphabetically by correspondent's name.
