Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Gift of Robert J. Levine, 2007, 2008, and 2016.

Conditions Governing Access

The bulk of the papers are open for research. Accession 2016-M-0064 is restricted until 2089 as established by Yale Corporation regulations <http://web.library.yale.edu/mssa/collections/research-use-of-yale-university-archives>.

Original audiovisual materials, as well as preservation and duplicating masters, may not be played. Researchers must consult use copies, or if none exist must pay for a use copy, which is retained by the repository.

Conditions Governing Use

Copyright is retained by the creator(s) of this collection for materials they have authored or otherwise produced. After the lifetime of the creator(s), copyright passes to Yale University. Copyright status for other collection materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

Copies of commercially produced audiovisual materials contained in this collection cannot be made for researcher use outside of the repository.

Preferred Citation

Robert J. Levine Papers (MS 1889). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Processing Information

Series II, Office Files, consists of roughly five extant A-Z runs of files labeled "Office Files" and "General Files," which have been rearranged into a single alphabetical run.

Series VI, Topical Files, contain correspondence, papers, and related materials that overlap with those in other series. Levine's original order, in which these files were not integrated with others in his personal record-keeping system, was maintained and no attempt was made to integrate these files into the other series.

Biographical / Historical

Robert J. Levine was born in Wantagh, New York, on December 29, 1934. He graduated from Duke University, North Carolina, in 1954, and earned his M.D. from George Washington University School of Medicine, Washington, DC, in 1958. He was a surgeon with the United States Public Health Service, 1960-1964, and held numerous positions at Yale University School of Medicine including: assistant professor of Medicine and Pharmacology, 1965-1968, chief of the Section of Clinical Pharmacology, 1966-1974; associate professor of Medicine and Pharmacology, 1968-1973; director of the Physicians Associate Program, 1973-1975; chair of the Institutional Review Board at Yale-New Haven Medical Center, 1969-2000; director of the Center for Interdisciplinary Research on AIDS, Law, Policy and Ethics Core; and co-director of the Interdisciplinary Center for Bioethics, 2005-2007. Levine was the founding editor of IRB: A Review of Human Subjects Research and has authored numerous publications, including Ethics and Regulation of Clinical Research.

Scope and Contents

The collection comprises correspondence; office, professional, and related topical files; course materials for medical ethics classes; and editorial files for IRB: A Journal of Human Subjects Research, documenting the career of Robert J. Levine as doctor, professor, author, and well-known leader in the field of medical ethics, specializing in research using human subjects.

Although arranged in series, there is considerable overlap of materials between series. For example, Topical Files may also contain correspondence and reports.

Arrangement

The papers are arranged in six series and two additions: I. Correspondence, 1953-1997. II. Office Files, 1962-1997. III. Medical Ethics Course Materials, 1978-1996. IV. Editorial Files for IRB: A Journal of Human Subjects Research, 1976-1996. V. Professional Files, 1972-2002. VI. Topical Files, 1958-2000.

Collection Contents

Series I: Correspondence, 1953-1997

This series comprises incoming and outgoing correspondence of both a professional and personal nature.

Folders of correspondence are arranged alphabetically by correspondents' last name, organization name, or journal title. There is also one small run of correspondence arranged chronologically. The original order of folders has been maintained.

Accession 2016-M-0064: Additional Material, bulk 1955–2014*9.78 linear feet (22 boxes)*

Accession 2016-M-0064 contains material related to Robert J. Levine's research and teaching at the Yale University School of Medicine. Includes research files, scholarly articles and writings, correspondence with Yale faculty and students, correspondence and consultations with medical professionals outside Yale, and office files on individuals and organizations.

Accession 2016-M-0064 contains student records and is closed until 1 January 2089 by Yale Corporation regulations <http://web.library.yale.edu/mssa/collections/research-use-of-yale-university-archives>.

Original audiovisual materials, as well as preservation and duplicating masters, may not be played. Researchers must consult use copies, or if none exist must pay for a use copy, which is retained by the repository. Researchers wishing to obtain an additional copy of non-commercially produced items for their personal use should consult the ordering reproductions information on the Manuscripts and Archives web site.

Original born digital files, as well as preservation masters, may not be accessed due to their fragility. Researchers must consult use copies, or if none exist request that they be made. Born digital files cannot be accessed remotely. System requirements include a Manuscripts and Archives computer and file viewing software.

The material is divided into three groupings: research files, correspondence, and office files.
