Series III: General Correspondence, 1893-194833 linear feet (77 boxes)*

GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE contains correspondence concerned with Dr. Huntington's professional interests. The correspondence is with individuals, professional and business organizations, and educational institutions.

The series is arranged chronologically by year. Within each year the folders are filed alphabetically by name. The exceptions to this are the entries "United States Government" and "Yale University", wherein the arrangement is alphabetical by department, with the items in chronological order. A "Miscellaneous" folder usually occurs at the end of each alphabetical sequence.

Accession 1996-M-034: Additional material, 1793-1964, bulk 1880-194775 linear feet*

Part 1. Family Correspondence (17 folders), is subdivided into two sections: Personal Correspondence and Family Correspondence. Personal Correspondence is arranged alphabetically and is comprised of letters to and from Ellsworth. He wrote many of these letters while conducting field work in Turkey and Asia. Family Correspondence is arranged alphabetically by the name of the family member. It includes letters between family members and with non-family members. The researcher should note that Ellsworth Huntington correspondence is only found in the Personal Correspondence section. Part 2. General Correspondence (12 folders), is arranged chronologically, and alphabetically within each year. The majority is routine in nature. Part 3. Subject Files (4 folders), is arranged alphabetically by subject. It includes notes, newspapers clippings, and papers relating to field work, professional matters, and other subjects. Part 4. Writings (5 folders), consists of books, articles, and one paper by Ellsworth Huntington, as well as writings by other persons. The series is arranged alphabetically within each type of writing. There are many published scholarly articles by Ellsworth Huntington not found in the main accession.

The accession is arranged to reflect the series found in the original accession of this collection. In this accession there are four parts: Part 1. Family Correspondence, 1793-1962 (reflects original Series II); 2. General Correspondence, 1889-1949 (reflects original Series III); Part 3. Subject Files, 1902-1935 (reflects original Series IV); and Part 4. Writings, 1893-1935 (reflects original Series V).
