The papers have been retained in the scheme of organization in which they were received. Series I, Correspondence, is divided into chronological segments. Series II, Published Writings of Norman E. Thomas, is divided into three sub-series: Book-length works, Articles and Chapters in Symposia, and Book Reviews. Series III, Unpublished Writings and Lectures is divided into two sub-series: Public lectures, and Book manuscripts. Series IV contains materials for courses taught by Thomas throughout his career, arranged alphabetically by course topic. Series V consists of the extensive subject files compiled by Thomas. The letter codes preceding topics are Thomas's classification system, somewhat based on the Library of Congress system. Series VI provides documentation related to various institutions with which Thomas was involved during the course of his career. Series VII contains biographical information about Thomas.
