Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections as they are acquired, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Someone recently mentioned you'd like a copy of the video we shot that night, so here you go - unedited - no tripod, just a documentation we thought would fit in the Woodstock Museum archives. If you need any of it in any format, the original was done on DV format, so it's digital and ready to go anywhere. Looking forward to your poetry again. Peace Brother, [?]	1999 July 30

But during the summer season, and also the fall too, we were very busy. Because we have a restaurant in Karuizawa and the place is very famous for a summer resort. Roki and I, we had to stay and work there through the season.  How are you getting along these days? Suppose you are so busy [for] your work. And how was Kyoto? I was so happy to hear from you in Koyoto and we imagined that you have had a pretty good time there with Shakty.  We want to thank you for joining us in Meguro museum, because of you, we could have a nice time. I enclose the video tape which you want and wait. If you like it, I feel so happy. And John Solt kindly payed for it before he leaves from Tokyo. He said that he will back to the States on December. I'd like to see you again in Tokyo or in your country, and if you come to Tokyo again, please call me. Aoki also wants to send you his best and warmhearted regards. Brussels, Monday night at Eric's with Gerard and Daniel:  Dear Ira, I've asked Eric to record for me your [plain] reading of 'Song to Nothing' that I will [put] into music (remember the [?] song your heard in Amsterdam last year?). He will bring with him a DAT machine if you want to add some other words (new poems) to be "recorded" by my [?], don't hesitate...if by any chance you could read also a text about 'Ethiopia' that could be very useful for Daniel's next video. You know about the slides I would need to [?] for a possible show in Belgium... I know you will be a wonderful guide for Eric and his charming manager. It would be wonderful if you 2 (3?) had a small gig together. Meanwhile, I'll be working for all of you. ENJOY THE VIDEOS!! Love, Philipe P.S. A big hi to Sky (Eric her address	1990; 1994

("turn off your mind, relax, and float downstream, it is not dying") OR: Simultaneously challenging and relaxing, FF2 is not for the rynaptically/neurologically uninitiated. It demands a degree of visual/artistic leteracay and requires, as well as paradoxically, enables, absolute attentiveness and utter surrender. You know who you are... After video remarks: Perhaps you saw a veiled woman, dancing removing a veil, a bare breast, hands and feet and hand gestures, a glance at a watch, a mummer doing cartwheels, a deer running, fire and water and stone... perhaps you saw cyclical, repetitive, relentless images, or an electronic dance of light and color (fire and water and stone)...or perhaps you saw slow freighted imagery co-existing with fast intracellular frequencies, sbutle nuances within the interslices of endless changes of fire and water and stone...perhaps you saw trains and walking arrivals and departures...perhaps you boarded that train and went on a trip...or perhaps something reached deep inside you and caused a resnace of delight and attention...what you saw and what you felt and where you went was all intentional. Any further questions? Description on Flame's Follies included: Flame's Follies a woman in a veil calls into being images of railroads, stone sculptures, brilliant abstractions, fire and water, and dances them into a television devolution.
