Processing Information

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and in some instances minimal organization. Various acquisitions associated with the collection have not been merged and organized as a whole. Each acquisition is described separately in the contents list below, titled according to month and year of acquisition.

As a rule, descriptive information found in the Collection Contents section is drawn in large part from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Former call numbers: Uncat MSS 15, Uncat MSS 895

Caryl Phillips (1958-)

Caryl Phillips, born in 1958 in St. Kitts, is a British playwright, screenwriter, and novelist. He is a Professor of English at Yale University.

Scope and Contents

The Caryl Phillips Papers consists of correspondence, writings, research files, business papers, computer disks, audio recordings, and printed material created and accumulated by Caryl Phillips from circa 1979 until 2006. Writings include drafts (autograph manuscripts, typescripts, printouts, and computer files) and other material related to all of his major works during this time period, including the plays Strange Fruit (1981), Where There is Darkness (1982), The Shelter (1984), and the novels The Final Passage (1985), A State of Independence (1986), Higher Ground (1989), Cambridge (1991), Crossing the River (1993), The Nature of Blood (1997), A Distant Shore (2003), and Dancing in the Dark (2005). Writings also include drafts and other material related to articles, lectures, and reviews. Correspondence is chiefly professional in nature, and relates to writings, publishing, and other professional activities.

Arrangement

Organized into three groupings: February 2000 Acquisition, September 2006 Acquisition, and February 2016 Acquisition.

Material within this collection has been organized by acquisition reflecting the fact that the collection has been acquired in increments over time. Researchers should note that material within each acquisition overlaps with or relates to material found in other acquisitions (e.g. correspondence and writings can be found in both groupings). In order to locate all relevant material within this collection, researchers should consult each acquisition described in the Collection Contents section.

Researchers should also note that similar material can be arranged differently in each acquisition, depending on how the material was organized when it was received by the library.

Collection Contents

February 2000 Acquisition, 1979-1997

30.59 linear feet (37 boxes) + 2 rolls

The February 2000 Acquisition consists of writings, correspondence, and business records dating from 1979 to 1997. September 2006 Acquisition, 1940-2006*38 linear feet (40 boxes)*

The September 2006 Acquisition consists of writings, research files, correspondence, business records, and audio recordings dating from 1940 to 2006, with the bulk of material dating from 1979 to 2006. Writings include early drafts of Strange Fruit (1981) and material for Celebration (1980) as well as later writings such as The Atlantic Sound (2000), Dancing in the Dark (2005), and the screen adaptation of Mystic Masseur (2001). Correspondence is chiefly with publishers or relates to lectures and professional travel. Other material includes reviews and clippings related to Phillips' life and work, and audio recordings relating to Phillips' research and work.

Boxes 75-77: Restricted until 2050. For further information consult the appropriate curator.

Box 72 (audiovisual material): Restricted fragile. Reference copies may be requested. Consult Access Services for further information.
