Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and arrangement, at the time of acquisition in 2012. Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from a survey of labels on the videocassettes.

Andrzej Wolski

Andrzej Wolski (1952-), Polish film director, resides in France and specializes in biographies and documentaries. In addition to Moi, Gombrowicz, his films include Czapski (1985) and Jan Le teenstein - Dziennik samotnika (2000).
